Prayer of the day—Most holy God, in whose presence angels serve in awe, and whose glory fills all heaven and earth: cleanse our unclean lips and transform us by your grace so that your word spoken through us may bring many to your salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

5th Sunday after the Epiphany– It is a brief encounter that transforms a life forever. Isaiah glimpses God. Before him flashes Glory beyond description: Glory blinding even to heavenly beings: Glory all-knowing, all seeing and all-consuming. There's nowhere to hide and nothing to hide. On the strength and impetus of this brief encounter Isaiah serves God flat out to the end. We too are to serve God where he places us until we too meet him face-to-face.

- Pray that our worship may be a true encounter with God
- Pray for the church of the Province of Central Africa.

AFRAID OF THE DARK. One of Tommy's favourite games was to ride his mother's broom around the yard like a horse. When it started to get dark, Tommy went into the house, leaving the broom in the yard. In cleaning up after dinner, Tommy's mother asked him to bring in her broom.

"But I'm scared to go out in the dark, Mum."

Mother answered, "The Lord is out there honey, don't be afraid."

So Tommy opened the door a little and called out, "Lord, if you're out there, hand me the broom!"
