Fifth Sunday after Pentecost –

Today Jesus tells us that we are to be single minded about helping to bring about God’s reign on earth. Nothing is to take precedence over it, not even family obligations or burying the dead. Today let us resolve to put hand to the plough and not look back, knowing that such determination will make us fit for the kingdom of God.

- When have I procrastinated about doing something to show God’s love to others? What stops me from making a firmer commitment to help bring in God’s kingdom on earth?
- Give thanks for the ways in which our partners proclaim God’s love to their parishes and communities.

BISCUIT DAY

Next Wednesday [30th June] is the annual biscuit day for the Bible Society. Packaging will commence in St. Benedict’s hall at 9am. Please support this once a year appeal. Thanks.

A MATTER OF INTEREST

During this year $830.65 has been contributed by members of our congregation outside of the general giving of the church. This has come about through the Pancake night when $310.15 was raised and given to Frances; the ABM Lenten envelopes $306.00; and the BCA boxes $214.50. Thank you to all of the contributors.

SUBTLETY

The children in a prominent family decided to give their father a book of the family’s history for his birthday. They commissioned a professional biographer to do the work, carefully warning him of the family’s ‘blacksheep’ problem. Uncle George had been executed in the electric chair for murder. The biographer assured the children, “I can handle that situation so that there will be no embarrassment. I’ll merely say that Uncle George occupied a chair of applied electronics at an important government institution. He was attached to his position by the strongest of ties and his death came as quite a shock.”

Misunderstanding:

A Polish man married an English woman and they were known to have a happy marriage, so a lawyer friend was surprised when the man came into his office extremely agitated, demanding a divorce. He claimed his wife was plotting to kill him. The lawyer demanded to see some evidence of this accusation. The man rummaged around in his briefcase and brought out a cosmetic bag, from which he took a small bottle. "Look here. She buy this bottle, she keep it in bathroom. Look what it say: 'Poison: Polish remover!'"

The class assignment in composition was to write about something unusual that happened during the past week. Little Irving got up to read his.

'Papa fell in the well last week,' he began.

'Good heavens,' shrieked Mrs. Kroop, the teacher. 'Is he all right now?'

'He must be,' said little Irving. 'He stopped yelling for help yesterday.'
